

Scapa Soft-Pro® Hydrogel Burn Treatment Line

A range of sterile consumer bandages to treat minor burns and scalds

Scapa Soft-Pro® Hydrogel Burn
Bandages soothe and cool skin on contact, reducing pain and discomfort from minor burns.

- Soothes and cools burn
- Helps to reduce pain
- Manages moisture
- Promotes moist wound healing
- Conforms to skin contours
- Offers multi-day wear time
- Bacterial & viral barrier
- Translucent & waterproof

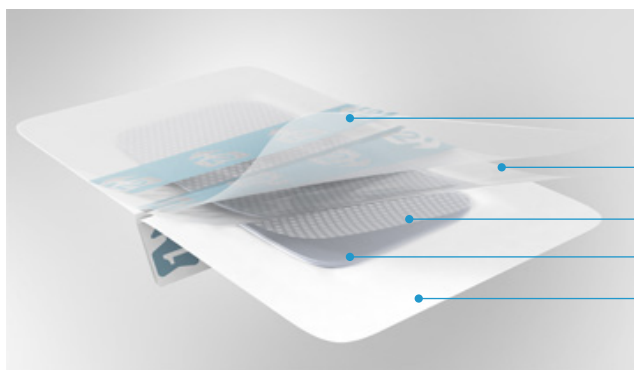

Our extensive portfolio of skin contact adhesives and in-house expertise allow us to develop customized solutions to meet end-user needs.

Scapa Soft-Pro® Hydrogel Burn Treatment line of sterile hydrogel bandages made with a hydrogel sheet and nonwoven mesh, covered by a clear polyurethane film border with an acrylic adhesive. The bandages come with top and bottom release systems for easy application.

Scapa Healthcare offers artwork design, printing and market-ready packaging solutions for a company to add their product line branding for quick market introduction.

Available in multiple sizes.

Top Release Liners
Polyurethane Film with Acrylic Adhesive
Nonwoven Mesh
Hydrogel
Bottom Release Liners

Features

Soothes and Cools

Lowers skin temperature to reduce discomfort.

Occludes and Protects

Promotes a moist wound healing environment.

Highly Breathable

Allows the skin to breathe.

Multi-day Wear Time

Minimizes disruptions in the healing process.

Bacterial and Viral Barrier

Protects from external contaminants.

Translucent and Waterproof

Allows for monitoring without bandage removal.

Contraindications

- Full-thickness wounds
- Heavily bleeding wounds
- Third degree burns
- As a covering for deep wounds

Applications

- Superficial burns and scalds

Scapa Healthcare Data on File